Tim Mulder Appointed President of ProForce Law Enforcement

September 1, 2006 - Tim Mulder, CFO and Vice President of Davidson's, one of the country's oldest and largest wholesale firearm distributors, has been named President of ProForce Law Enforcement, the fast-growing supplier of firearms and specialty equipment to officers and agencies in the California, Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, Colorado and Utah territories. Mr Mulder will retain his CFO duties at Davidsons in addition to those of his new position.

ProForce Law Enforcement's new leader has an extensive educational background, and over 18 years in the firearms industry, including that as former President of Davidson's Canada. "I am happy and confident in my appointment of Tim Mulder as President of ProForce, and know that his experience and skills will undoubtedly help drive even greater future growth for the company," commented owner and CEO Bryan Tucker.

ProForce Law Enforcement has a law enforcement store space located at 655 Berry Street in Brea, CA and is opening a distribution center in Prescott. ProForce offers a lineup of products from specialty optics and garments to, of course, firearms. "I am looking forward to working with the ProForce staff and exploring new avenues and ways in which we can better meet the needs of our law enforcement and special ops community." stated Mr. Mulder. "Growth and expansion while maintaining excellence in service will remain our charter." he added.
